

I think that there are too many media controled by too few companies, and in some cases people. I recently canceled Direct TV bacause Robt. Murdoch just bought it. I believe thre will not be enough diversity....yes there are more channels....but these channels are owned by about 5 corporations....what Clear Channel did to the Dixie Chicks is a good example of what "contol" means.